PRESTON'S ROLL OF HONOUR.

A LIST TO BE PROUD OF.

Ready Response from Mill and Church.

MAINTAINING THE TRADITIONS OF A MILITARY TOWN.

(COPYRIGHT.)

This week we give a further instalment of our town's inspiring "Roll of Honour." We have received many manifestations of the pleasure which the publication of the list is giving to Prestonians, and we shall use every endeavour to make the list a complete and authentic record of our townsmen with the colours. There are still hundreds of names to be published, and we would welcome the assistance of all interested in making the list as representative as possible. We entreat the faithful appeal to employers of labour, managers, cashiers, business men, secretaries and superintendents of religious and social institutions, and ministers of religion, whose lists have not as yet appeared, to co-operate with us in this great effort to complete Preston's Roll of Honour.

PRESTON'S ROLL OF HONOUR.

Local Men Killed in Action.

Amongst the Preston soldiers killed in action, according to official notifications received by their relatives, are Pte. Richard Ashcroft, of the Scots Guards, who was shot through the head on January 20th. Ashcroft, who was the son of Mr. Richard Ashcroft, of 2, Carr-street, was an employee of the Electric Car Company up to twelve months ago, when he joined the Scots Guards. He was only 18 in December last.

Pte. Ed. Higham fell in France on January 29th. Before the war Higham, who lived at 6, Princess-street, died as a result of wounds received in action on January 30th. He was only 19 years of age.

Pte. Reginald Gibson, of the Scots Guards, whose parents reside at 36, Plumpton-road, Ashton-on-Ribble, has also been killed in action.

An official intimation has been received by his parents at 6, Cowan-street, Preston, that Pte. Fred Whittaker has been killed in action. Whittaker, who was only 18 years of age, was serving with the 3rd Battalion L.N.L. Regiment, with which he had had some training prior to the war. Up to November last he had been employed as a creeler in one of Messrs. Horrockses, Crewdson, and Co.'s mills. He fell in one of the fierce engagements that marked the Kaiser's birthday. His father, T. T. Whittaker, is serving with the National Reserves.

Private William Irving, of the Scots Guards, was killed in action on January 24. Deceased, whose home was at 41, Park road, Preston, transferred from the 4th Battalion L.N.L. Regiment in September. He had been a Territorial for about four years. In civil life he worked as carter for Messrs. Singleton and Sons, Leyland.

BIRCH FOR BAD BOYS.

Six Strokes for Young Prestonians.

At a sitting of the Borough Children's Court, on Wednesday, four Preston lads, ranging in age from 13 to nine, were charged with stealing four walking sticks, valued at 15s., from inside Lambert's tobacconist's shop, 137, Church-street, the previous Sunday afternoon. P.C. Gregory said he was on duty in Church-street on Sunday when he saw one of the boys run out of Lambert's shop carrying a walking-stick, dart across the street, and join his three companions—each of whom had a similar stick—in North-road.

The oldest boy was placed under probation for 18 months, the youngest discharged with a caution; one of the other boys—who had been twice previously warned—was ordered to receive six strokes of the birch, and the remaining boy three strokes of the birch.

MR. ASHLEY AND THE WAR.

No Consent to Premature People.

Speaking at the Parliamentary recruiting meeting at Bispham, during the week end, Lieut.-Colonel W. W. Ashley, M.P., for Blackpool Divison said. Great Britain was not a military nation, but she had raised an army of over 2,000,000 men. Many men in doing this had changed their mode of life entirely, and had left good positions and high salaries for the paltry pay of 1s. per day. (Applause.) Many of them had come from the universities to take part in this war. In his own battalion he knew that at least 500 out 1,400 had left good situations, some of them with salaries ranging from £300 to £1,000. These men were sleeping on straw mattresses. (Applause.)

NO PREMATURE PEACE.

He hoped he would not be looked upon as a bloodthirsty man when he asked them not to consent to premature peace. What they wanted now was to settle the question for all time, and to see to it that such a military power should no longer be in existence. After a war similar to the present one. They must make their shores secure, and the popular government in this country demanded for the smallest nation of the world. They must see that small nations could live in peace and security in the future in their own way. (Applause.) This country, although isolating itself, could not keep out of the evil of militarism. They had had to a year and there was a small increase in the cost of foodstuffs. He had had to say that what Belgium had gone through and is now such a thing impossible again. That why he asked them not in any way to cause a vindictive peace. (Applause.)

MALVERN HYDROPATHIC ESTABLISHMENT.

The only hydro in Malvern is the Hydropathic Establishment, which has a situation, commanding lovely views. It is superior, and homelike, and caters specially for all requiring rest and quiet in Malvern with an electric passenger lift. Table is liberal and carefully selected the cuisine. Special attention is given to special diets. There is ample bedroom accommodation for visitors and friends. A private electric light installation is in use, and supplies electric light throughout the establishment. Amongst the attractions is that of dances, musical evenings, etc., which are held frequently during the season. The house has its own tennis and croquet lawns and bowling green. Malvern, as a health resort, is well known, and the air is bracing and free from fog, etc., and the number of interesting excursions in neighbourhood worth visiting, provide plenty of recreation.

CHORLEY RURAL COUNCIL AND RIVINGTON ROADS.

The War a Pretext for Censure.

An unanimously passed resolution of the Liverpool Corporation in favour of the Rivington footpaths and roads, and the Rivington reservoirs, was made at a meeting of the Chorley Rural District Council on Tuesday, when it was declared that the clerk should write the Chief Constable of the County Mr. C. F. Lancaster, asking that these should be thrown open again, the closure is causing great inconvenience to the inhabitants of the district.

Mr. C. F. Sassmith, in moving the adoption of the recommendation, said that the pool Corporation had treated the inhabitants of Anderton, Rivington and Heath Charnock in a shameful way. They had closed the roads as a pretext for the permanent closing of roads which had been open for generations. The "Street" Service, which used to run to read a mile long, had been closed, and in reply to a communication to the Old Street Corporation the chief engineer of the Liverpool Corporation he had received a letter stating that they were going to make a "Private Street" drive without the consent of the Corporation, except officials of the Corporation and the County Mr. C. F. Lancaster, that these should be thrown open again, the closure is causing great inconvenience to the inhabitants of the district.
